

August 2020

Advisory Group Volunteers Needed!

The Colville Project is looking for people in our community with experience in the field of mobile and reconfigurable buildings to join their Building Advisory Group.

This is a voluntary position and requires occasional meetings with the group to help guide the construction of the modular, transportable buildings which are a feature of the centre. Experience in sustainable, ethical building materials and processes would be of particular value.

Coffee and biscuits will be provided at all advisory group meetings.

If interested please contact thecolvilleproject@gmail.com